Oscar Kurtz gives encouraging report on advancement

The annual meeting of the Northwest Suburban Council B. Scouts of America was held Thursday evening at 8 p. m. at the Masonic temple in Des Plaines. John P. Gillick of Park Ridge was elected council president for 1944. Hugh H. Calkins of Barrington, Erich H. Schalk of Des Plaines, D. P. Lewis of Park Ridge and Armond King of Skokie were elected council vice-presidents. W. H. Colman of Park Ridge and C. S. Stewart, immediate past president were elected as National council representatives. As treasurer, J. R. Lawrence of Des Plaines was elected to succeed himself. W. F. Kratt of Park Ridge was elected council commissioner.

Members at large elected were R. E. Clabaugh of Arlington Heights, R. B. Griess of Park Ridge, William Forrest and A. G. Cubley of Arlington Heights, O. T. Birkness, Hall Teeman and C. C. Parriott of Park Ridge, R. W. Daniels of Prospect Heights, S. H. Rosenthal of Des Plaines, V. L. Klenberg, R. B. Leslie, John L. Klocke of Park Ridge and H. L. Wesner of Lake Zurich.

F. O. Proctor, F. G. Smith, T. M. Whitson and Charles Passmore of Park Ridge and A. L. Webster of Des Plaines were elected as honorary members of the Executive Board. The roster of chairmen of operating and planning committees of the council is yet to be completed.

In the absence of the council president, Chas. S. Stewart, Vice-President Hugh H. Calkins presided. The first report was given by the scout executive, Stanley H. Huntington, in which he stated that progress had been made by the council over the last year and that there was still opportunity to serve boys through the regular Cub and Scout program as well as a big opportunity in the Senior Scout program.

The advancement report was given by Oscar C. Kurtz, chairman, of Arlington Heights. In his report Mr. Kurtz pointed out that the objectives set for the year were rather high and that the council had gone a long way toward achieving their aims, the goal being not more than 40 per cent of the Scouts in the council tenderfoot and more than 28 per cent first class. At the end of the ten months of the year 43 per cent were Tenderfoot and 26.7 per cent were first class. He stated that during the year 50 boards of review were held and 19 courts of honor.

He said he felt the advancement manual prepared by the advancement committee had received wider distribution than they had anticipated being used. He stated that throughout the Northwest Suburban Council but was distributed to scout executives all over region seven and extra copies had been sent to some councils.

The Cub advancement program was strong throughout the year, Mr. Kurtz stated. He reported by stating that statistically the report was good but there was need to repair the advancement program so that we will show improvement next year. He said the need was greater than ever for Scouts to advance and stay in the scouting program and that it will be the job of every scout leader to council to make a better showing next year.

A. H. Wiedenman gave the finance report in which he stated that the total income for the year would be something over eleven thousand dollars and that met the objective of the finance committee for the year. Wiedenman also stated that the money for the operation of the Scout Council of Des Plaines had already been raised through the war fund campaign.

The treasurer's report was read by J. R. Lawrence of Des Plaines, and he stated that the report showed an operating balance of $8,855.93. W. F. Kratt gave the commissioner's report in which he stressed the fact that although new Scouts and Cubs were being added that between now and December 31st the council would stand a loss of Cubs and Scouts through Troop and Pack renewals. Mr. Kratt paid tribute to the commissioner staff for their excellent work done throughout the year and particularly in carrying out the inventory and roll call in every troop and pack in the council. He said much valuable information was gained from the inventory and roll call which would lead to the conclusion that more Scouts and Cubs will be active than at any time in the previous history of the council.

The camping report was given by Chairman Otto E. Harz of Park Ridge in which he stated that attendance at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta had increased with 205 Scouts and Scouters spending a total of 375 weeks in camp. In addition to Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta the camping and activities program included the camporee at Camp Dan

IAA prexy calls food rollbacks unpatriotic

In a sweeping review of wartime agricultural issues delivered before the 29th annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural Association here today, Earl C. Smith, IAA president, declared that the American workingmen and farmers have identical long time interests in a stable and fair economy and a stable, solvent government. Applying this statement to the current debate over rollbacks in food prices coupled with subsidies to the producer, the Illinois farmer leader declared, "I firmly believe that the families of American workers are more interested in having plenty of wholesome food on their tables at fair prices, than they are in saving perhaps $40 per year temporarily in the cost of living at the expense later of increased taxes and of comparative shortages of food now."

The rollback-subsidy plan is not justified in view of current wage levels and current food prices, Smith maintained. "The average consumer income is at the highest level in history; a smaller percentage of average income is being spent for food than ever before; wages of industrial labor are at a record peak, and twice as high as in World War I, while food prices are 5 per cent lower than in the last war, and prices received by farmers are 12 per cent lower, he stated.

"Brookings Institute figures show that weekly earnings of industrial workers have risen 14 per cent since September, 1942, while the cost of living has risen only about 6 per cent," he continued. In terms of dollars, he stated that average wages of industrial workers are up $15 per week since January, 1941, while the cost of food has increased only $6 for an average family of four.

"Since January, 1942, the average weekly wage of factory workers had increased 28.9 per cent and the average wage or income of all non-farm workers had risen 8.9 per cent," Smith continued.

"In the face of these comparisons, I ask by what line of rule or reason have the leaders of organized industrial labor today either the right to demand a rollback in food prices and living costs in 1942, or to threaten that another wage increase will be demanded if the rollback is not forthcoming," he concluded.

"If we really want justice and stability in America, would it not be more appropriate to reduce excessive wages and cost plus profits in American industry to the level of farm prices and to the income of the so-called white collar worker," the farm leader asked.

Farmers have profited less from the war than have non-farm groups, Mr. Smith contended. Constituting nearly one-fourth of the population, farmers, he said, will have in 1943 an income approximately two and three-tenths billion dollars higher than in 1942. In 1941, the necessity of controls over wages, prices and profits to prevent inflation, Smith said, "Extreme efforts have been made through price ceilings and other devices to hold farm commodity prices within parity, and in some of the more important commodities, substantially below parity, while industrial wages have been permitted to rise to a point that makes the Little Steel formula seem almost a myth, and while industrial profits and national income have been rising to dizzy heights."

It should be emphasized that a positive reaction which is characterized by a swollen and slightly reddened spot where the fluid is injected into the arm does not mean that a person has tuberculosis. It does indicate that there has been a contact with a tuberculosis germ and in order to determine to what extent the lungs have been affected the positive reactor should have a chest X-ray. Negative reactors are urged to have a retest this year also.

TB test next Monday at high school

Every student in the Arlington Heights high school will be offered a tuberculin skin test next Monday, Nov. 29, when the Arlington Heights Health Center sponsors its annual tuberculosis prevention program. The tests will be read on Wednesday, Dec. 1, and X-rays of ad on Dec. 10 at the high school.

Dr. Julius Novak, Medical Director of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county with whom the local health center is affiliated will conduct the testing. He will be assisted by Mrs. Clara Lund, R.N., who directs the activities of the Health Center.

Simple, harmless and practically painless is the best description that can be given of the tuberculin skin test, yet it is the easiest method of discovering those people who have been in contact with tuberculosis.

It should be emphasized that a positive reaction which is characterized by a swollen and slightly reddened spot where the fluid is injected into the arm does not mean that a person has tuberculosis. It does indicate that there has been a contact with a tuberculosis germ and in order to determine to what extent the lungs have been affected the positive reactor should have a chest X-ray. Seek more victory gardens next year

Illinois, which led the nation with 600,000 Victory Gardens in 1942 and 1,151,000 in 1943, is asked to increase both the number of gardens and total production in 1944.

Lester J. Norris, state food director, said the Illinois War Council committee has set its sights on a 15 per cent increase in gardens for 1944. If this goal is reached, it would mean the planting of 172,650 more gardens next year, for a total of 1,323,650.

High school obtains juke box

The Junior class of the high school has arranged for the installation of a "juke box" in the high school cafeteria, which will serve as a noon-hour orchestra for music and dancing. During the cold weather students are required to use only part of the building and to make the lunch period more pleasant the music has been added.

The Juniors are also trying to make the basketball games not only an athletic thrill, but also a social event. They are sponsoring a "dime dance" after each home game and the juke box will be continuous from the first game of the last game until about 11:30. All adults who are not too decrepit to enjoy a little boogie woogie are invited to join in the basketball dances and try their luck at cutting up parts of the asphalt tile floor.

Thanksgiving union service

Chaplain Chalmers G. Long of the Naval Air Station in Glenview, will be the speaker at the Union Thanksgiving service sponsored by the First Presbyterian, First Methodist and St. John's Evangelical churches on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at St. John's Evangelical church.

A string trio from the Naval Air Station and St. John's choir will furnish music. Ministers of the three sponsoring churches will take part in the service.

The string trio consists of J. Maurice Dobbins, Spec. (W) 1/C, violinist; Reginald R. Goris, Spec. (W) 2/C, pianist; and William Carver Williams, S/C, cellist.

The public is cordially invited to this Thanksgiving service.

Student senate is organized at high school

After a lapse of several years, during which the students at Arlington high school lacked interest in the Student Council, a number of upper classmen have revived the spirit of the school to the extent that a new organization has been formed during the past week.

Using the old constitution as a starting point, the classes met in meetings and elected representatives to the new group which will be called the Student Senate. Representation from the classes is divided on a 5-4-3-2 basis and the Senators elected are as follows:

Seniors: George Gaare, Rosemary Heller, Robert McCardle, Ruth Ross, and Robert Williams. Juniors: Lois Knaack, Pat McDonald, Jack Thompson, and Phil Weber.

In addition to the Senators elected by the classes, the four class presidents serve as ex-officio members. They are: Senior, Richard Bokelmann; Junior, James Robinson; Sophomore, Donald Hamburg; and Freshman, Dale Williams.

The first step in the organization will be the revision of the constitution along modern lines and the election of officers. The faculty adviser will then be chosen. The student representatives of the whole school in such an organization usually have charge of all-school activities such as Homecoming celebrations, the activity and social calendar, the Christmas tree and program and other purely internal school matters. Members of the organization are more familiar with desires and reactions of the student body and are therefore an effective means of conveying these facts to the attention of the faculty and school administrators.

The renewed interest on the part of students in the affairs of the school augurs well for the school and all of its activities. With such a group taking the active leadership in the drive for school interest and spirit which was so well inaugurated by the Dad's Club, many advantages will be gained by the young people of the district.

New club room at high school

One room has been made available to the club at the Arlington Heights high school in which the school clubs can meet. The room will be devoted mainly to the "A" club, but will be loaned by them to other organizations whose meetings will not conflict.

Principal Conger is collecting all of the pictures which are available of the athletic squads of the past years and these pictures will be hung in the new club room.

A new card file has been organized this year in the office in which each and every boy to win an athletic award has an individual card on which is shown the award won, the year in which it was awarded, and the number of such awards. Cards are kept for students who have won letters as team managers and also for girls and boys who have won recognition as cheer leaders.

Mr. Conger is called upon to furnish the armed forces with many letters concerning the former students of the school who may be applying for special training or entrance to officer candidate schools. All of these blanks call for full description of the athletic participation of the boys while in high school upon which great emphasis is placed in selecting those to be given the chance for advancement. Athletic records are being transferred to the card index as far back as the records are obtainable, and this file will be a permanent and authentic reference for the years to come.

Postoffice closed all day Thursday

There will be no mail deliveries Thanksgiving day. The lobby will be open from 8:00 to 10:00 for those who have lock boxes. One dispatch of mail will be made, closing at ten o'clock. There will be an early morning pickup from mail boxes about town.

Organize war time exchange in Arlington

A war time exchange is being opened in the Arlington Heights Methodist church on Thursday evening of next week, to which any one in the village may bring articles for sale.

The exchange will be under the direction of Mrs. Ken Millstead, who has had experience in this line in other cities, and it is hoped that the exchange will prove popular to all.

Any one in Arlington Heights or the surrounding territory may bring to the exchange clothing, shoes, boots, rubbers, galoshes, furniture, toys, in fact anything that is a good selling commodity. The one important requisite is that all merchandise must be in excellent condition. All clothing must be cleaned and pressed, and other articles in good repair. The affair is not in the manner of a rummage sale, but rather as its name suggests, an exchange.

Those who bring articles for the sale will receive the purchase price, minus ten percent, which will go to the church.

Mrs. Millstead has on hand at this time a large amount of merchandise, and anticipates a good turnout at the opening date of the sale on Thursday evening, December 2. Anyone having merchandise to contribute, please contact Mrs. Millstead by calling 1454 as soon as possible. Mrs. Millstead also has antiques for sale and will exhibit them at the church.

The sale will continue on each Thursday evening, opening at 7:00 o'clock in the Methodist church.

Louis Pohlman wins corn crown

A crop of 107.15 bushels per acre won the corn growing championship of Cook county in the 1943 National DeKalb hybrid corn growing contest, it was learned this week. Mr. Louis Pohlman of Palatine is the corn grower who has made this outstanding yield in this locality in competition in which over 10,000 farmers from 17 principal corn producing states participated.

Mr. Pohlman and several other farmers in this county certainly produced more than their share of the nation's record crop of more than 3,085,000,000 bushels of corn last year.

The county winner's corn was grown from Hybrid No. 410, and his yield calculated from the best five acres of corn on his farm. In recognition of his achievement the winner is being presented with an appropriate plaque by the DeKalb Agricultural Association.

Other big yields recorded were made by Ronald A. Meyer, Mt. Prospect, 96.80; Wm. Rohlfing, Palatine, 95.20; Albert Heuter, Jr., Arlington Heights, 95.18; C. E. Burch, Palatine, 92.63.

Firemen pinch hit for police officers

It is very seldom that there is a fist encounter in Arlington Heights business section and it is also very seldom that there is not a police officer on hand, but the peace of the community is safe as long as there is a fireman around. The firemen were holding a meeting in the municipal building the other evening when a phone call came in that two citizens were fighting on Campbell st.

The firemen hurriedly adjourned their meeting, because as one member said it had been a long time since he had witnessed a good Irish scrap. As the boys were leaving the village hall, John Frimback, a fireman, ordered them to bring the fighters over to the lock-up. The firemen did that little thing. At first the two refused to accompany the firemen, but eight to two were six too many and they came peacefully. The firemen also handled the judicial part of the case and allowed one of the men to go home, instructing the desk sergeant to have the other until the following morning.

"That is the way we commandos do the job" said Captain Oswald Meyer.

Incidentally the firemen are happy to learn that they still have their captain with them. When he reported for induction last week he army sent him home, saying that the fire department needed him more than they did. "O. K." said Oswald as he picked up his cap and headed for home.

Seek clothing for Greek war relief

Thomas Kuras of Arlington Heights has been chosen to head the local drive for clothing for Greek War Relief. The organization is making a nation-wide drive for second hand clothing for Greek refugees and victims of the war. Clothes donated by residents in this area will be picked up Saturday and Sunday. Arrangements for the pickup can be made by calling Arlington Heights 1394-W. Mar Johnson, operator of the traveling servicemen's bank, has also agreed to use his tavern as a collection agency for this clothing. Thus, any residents who have clothing to give can leave it at Mar's near the Arlington post office.

ONE SECTION THIS WEEK

This edition printed Monday evening has only one section this week. We return to 12 pages next week.

No Xmas baskets without ration stamps, says OPA

The OPA has ruled that there can be no charity food baskets given away at Thanksgiving or Christmas unless the recipient gives up the required ration stamps. It suggests in a release to the press that organizations may continue their charitable bequests with non-rationed goods.

This means that those baskets can contain no butter, cheese, canned goods, jelly, nor meat unless it be a fowl. Authorized charitable organizations such as usually provide the Christmas baskets in Arlington Heights are practically put out of business by the order.

The OPA suggests that those who desire to make a food gift, pay the sum they expect to spend to the retailer, who will then notify the recipient that he has a cash credit at his store that can be used for any purpose desired if rationed stamps are provided for foods which require them.

Charitable organizations who desire to give the gifts direct can secure a ration stamp credit from the local ration board, but in turn must collect the stamps from the recipient of the basket when it is delivered.

Children's non-leather shoes to be rationed

A new supply of children's non-leather shoes for general wear will be available about the first of the year and provide some relief for the shortage of youngsters' shoes, announced the local board chairman. The supply will be for children up to eight years. Shoes which are larger than size three will continue to be rationed.

Many special attractions at 'Bundles' dance

Dancers as well as non-dancers are in for a musical treat at the "Be a Santa to a Service Man" benefit party to be held December 4 at the Palatine high school gym.

According to all reports the Mark Webb orchestra which the Inverness Unit of Bundles for America has engaged can turn out the kind of music everyone likes. From defense plant to defense dance, one might say, is the story of this band.

"Although we are each doing our bit in defense plants in the day time," said Mark Webb today, "all my men are accomplished musicians from name bands and we have played together as a unit for several years." Mr. Webb is a resident of Prospect Heights and is well known for the many successful dances at which he has played in the western suburbs.

The orchestra is composed of Charles "Red" Clark at the piano, arranger and composer for the orchestra; Don West, novelty drummer with many years stage experience; Charles Meyers, welder by day at the Electromotive Corp. and hot trumpet by night; and Mark Webb, leader, who doubles on the sax and clarinet.

As an added feature Mrs. Lawrence Somerville, dance chairman announces that some lucky door prize winner is to receive a basket filled with good things to eat which will help make those little blue coupons last longer.

To further live the party Mrs. William Fogarty, chairman of the Inverness Unit, has somehow secured some well-nigh unobtainable articles to raffie off at the dance. "We have a box of shotgun shells, some nylon hose and other things to raffie," reports Mrs. Fogarty. "And the season's still open," she adds, "on ducks, rabbits, and beaus."

Mrs. George Hartford, president of the Midwest headquarters of Bundles for America, will be present to tell of the work of supplying Christmas gift stockings and knitted and sewn articles for service men and their families. Mrs. Hartford is a former resident of Arlington Heights and now resides in River Forest. Through her untiring effort the work of Bundles for America in the greater Chicago area has been uniquely successful.

The attractive red, white and blue posters announcing the December 4 dance and showing the Christmas stocking were designed by commercial artist Hubert Neilson of Inverness. They are everywhere in evidence in store windows and elsewhere from Crystal Lake to Park Ridge, which proves that Mrs. Malcolm Jennings and her publicity committee has been busy letting everyone know when, where and why the dance would be held.

Last, but not least, in the plans to make the dance one that will long be remembered, Mrs. Orville Warwick announces that she and her food committee have supplies on hand to tickle the palate of everyone present.

Dog goes to war

A TRIBUTE TO RIP
Laurins' had a dog named Rip.
They sent her off to war;
So the world may REST IN PEACE,
When war will be no more.
(A Neighbor)

"Rip," the springer spaniel owned by Neil Laurin, has gone to war. In the company of her master, she enlisted last summer, and last week received notice to appear for duty. "Rip" is eighteen months old and met all army requirements in tip top manner. She is within the age limit of from one to five years, weighed the required fifty pounds, and is twenty inches long. Neil received notice to deliver her to the Railway Express station at 410 Milwaukee ave. on Sunday afternoon.

The army will notify Neil every three months as to his dog's location and her progress in the service, but no furloughs are in order it seems. Neil says that his dog can serve for him until he is old enough, and he knows that if she does as well in the army as she does when she goes hunting with him, she will be commissioned rapidly.

Must not use c-o P. M., Chicago on V-mail

V-Mail for soldiers overseas should be addressed the same as before establishment of a V-Mail Station in Chicago November 15, it was explained today by Major Kenneth H. Donnelly, Sixth Service Command Postal Officer.

Word has been received from the Post Office that mail is arriving addressed to Postmaster, Chicago. That is incorrect. The same APO and Post Office should be used as before.

The Chicago V-Mail Station is being put into operation gradually. Eventually it is planned that it will serve approximately twenty states in the Middle West. The United States Post Office will handle the routing of all mail, however, so as to provide the greatest possible speed in delivery.

The high school gymnasium will be opened soon Saturday mornings to elementary school boys from the public and parochial schools.

Two RAF men guests in Arlington Hts. home

Two distinguished visitors in Arlington Heights last week, were Pilot Officer Peter Andersen of the Royal Australian Air Force, and Pilot Officer, Peter Cook of the Royal Air Force of England.

The young men were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Andersen of 1212 East Euclid. Pilot Officer Andersen is a second cousin of Mr. L. B. Andersen, and Pilot Officer Peter Cook is his "buddy" whom he met in Ontario, Canada, where they have been training for the past few months.

Young Andersen was born and raised in Queensland, Australia, where he graduated from church of England public and grammar school, which compares with our high schools. His home town is Vondal, a village of about five thousand, one hundred miles inland, in Australia.

The young officer is 20 years of age and enlisted in the Australian Air Force some fourteen months ago, completing his training in May for his actual flying training and received his commission on October 1. His commission as Pilot Officer, compares with a second Lieutenant in the U. S. armed forces. He is a bombardier.

Young Andersen has a sister in Australia as well as his parents and they are all actively supporting the war effort through his father is an air raid warden and his sister and mother both assist in the Service Men's centers. He has an uncle who is an officer, commanding the rear division headquarters in New Guinea.

Shropshire

Pilot Officer Peter Cook is a native of Shropshire, England, is nineteen years of age, and is completing high school, received more than a year of preliminary training in England, before coming to Canada for his actual flying training. He has been in Canada since January and also received his commission as a Pilot Officer on October 1, and is a bombardier.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cook of Shropshire. He has a twin brother who is an Air Gunner in England, and has seen combat service in the bomber command. His sister, a school teacher, is an assistant in a Canteen, as is his mother and his father is a fire watcher. All in England have an appointed war job.

The boys visited Great Lakes Naval Training Station Wednesday and were escorted through the Station by Lieut. Commander Stanley Anderson. On Sunday afternoon the officers were shown through the Glenview Naval Station by Captain E. J. Stettler, former Captain of the Hornet. The officers were impressed by the size and efficiency of the Stations and feel that America is "all out" in the war effort.

The boys have been overwhelmed by the hospitality of their friends and relatives here, who have given a constant round of parties for them since they arrived. On Wednesday the family group of fourteen were dinner guests in the M. H. Hansen home at Crystal Lake, on Thursday evening the group had dinner at the Union Hotel in Wheeling, on Friday evening the same group were

Large enrollment for basketball at high school

About 90 boys tried out for places on the Varsity and Junior Varsity squads last week. After several days of practice the squads were cut to about 20 each and the others are to be organized into a training group to learn fundamentals.

Mr. Scider will coach the Varsity squad, and Mr. Joyner will have charge of the Junior-Varsity boys. Mr. Grose will have charge of the training division and also is organizing the intramural teams for the annual tournament. Approximately 120 boys will play in the intramural tournament.

With this amount of boys participating in the athletic program during the winter months it is evident to even those parents who have never seen the gymnasium under these conditions, that the gym floor is a veritable bee hive.

The winners in the Intramural tournament have their names engraved on the V. I. Brown Memorial Plaque which was presented to the school by Mr. Francis V. Spears, a former high school board member. The Plaque hangs in the front entrance lobby and is inscribed with the motto, "Clean Sport — Good Morals."

Arlington Heights high school is a member of the Northeast Conference, which in its By-Laws states that the purpose of all coaches shall be to build the strongest possible Varsity team. With this as a goal, players are shifted to squads as their ability warrants. No player is assured a position on a squad as he may be demoted at any time by some hard working player on a Junior team. The training squad also will furnish boys to the Junior-Varsity squad as members are able to supplant those boys not in condition physically or who are not developing as expected.

The high school gymnasium will be opened soon Saturday mornings to elementary school boys from the public and parochial schools.

Girls use too much makeup

Their reaction to American youth is typically British. They do not like the American way of dancing, feel that it lacks dignity and they may safely fly home from every bombing mission, over war torn Europe.

The entire group gathered at the L. B. Andersen home Sunday for a good American Thanksgiving dinner, with a twenty-five pound turkey, the feature of the festive board. Other guests at the festivities of the week were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Andersen of Des Moines, Iowa and Mr. E. Keating of Aurora. The young officers when interviewed stated that they are having a wonderful time and hate to have their holiday come to an end, but are anxious to get into the fight now, and get it over as quickly as possible, so that they can go home.

"A friendly church in the city of good neighbors" most cordially welcomes you!

Consider the busy doctor

by C. W. LUSSMAN
of Siebek Pharmacy

Perhaps, although you are not feeling "so good" you postpone a visit to the doctor's office, because you are busy, you haven't time, you might have to wait in his outer office.

The doctor is a busy man too. He would much prefer to make an appointment with you over the telephone and see you in his own office, than to receive that urgent message that you are seriously ill in bed and that he must come to you.

Save the doctor's time, save his energy, save yourself or possible siege in bed. That "not so good" feeling means something, means you had better get to the doctor before he has to get to you.

Do it now. Make the appointment. A little medication, prepared by a careful and competent druggist, may be all that is required.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
North Dunton at Fremont will hold Thanksgiving services at 11 a. m. Thursday, Nov. 25.
"Thanksgiving" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Thursday, November 25.

The Golden Text will be "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? . . . I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord" (Psalms 116: 12, 17).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon will be the following from the Bible: "And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work." (II
Cor. 9: 8, 11).
The Lesson-Sermon will include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christians rejoice in secret beauty and bounty, hidden from the world, but known to God, Self-forgetfulness, purity, and affection are constant prayers. Practice, not profession, understanding not belief, gain the ear and right hand of omnipotence and they assuredly call down infinite blessings" (p. 15).

Marion Mecklenburg weds Chicago soldier

Miss Marion Mecklenburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mecklenburg, Mt. Prospect, became the bride of Pvt. Wm. Schwartz, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schwartz, Chicago, in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, Nov. 13, 4:30 o'clock, at St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran church, Mt. Prospect, Rev. J. E. A. Mueller officiating.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, princess lines, with a long home for friends and relatives.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black velvet and the groom's mother, black crepe. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Bernice Shetko, Chicago, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mr. Elmer Jackisch played "Liebestraum" on the organ during the ceremony.

A wedding supper for the immediate family was served at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Fred Mecklenburg. Later open house was held at the bride's home.

It Happened Here

We do not recommend it as a garden club procedure, but we failed to cut our late chrysanthemums before the snow came and for a short time our garden was a fairy-land of mantling snow with the valiant flower heads in startling contrast as the winter had suddenly bloomed in gay rosettes of red, bronze and pink; when the wind shifted and the curtain of fast falling flakes parted, we felt as tho we watched a magician culling flowers from the crystals. The cardinal fears no weather; just the sight of his red coat on a snowy day warms the cockles of the heart; the three squirrels help in a way, too, being in such good fur as to make one envious and a little vexed because he owes us that fur for the seed he has purloined. The seed shells scattered under the window worried the inquisitive carpenter, come to adjust the storm windows. "You keep a parrot?" We told him about the cardinals. "Well, now, do the cardinals come in the house? We keep a parrot, fifteen years old he is but doesn't look his age nor oughtn't to, the care we give him. My wife, she likes to drive around with me; we used to live in our own bungalow and I did a bit of landscaping on the place, but I sold it—too much work to keep it up and if you let a place run down it gives the neighborhood a bad look and so we've taken an apartment." We wondered if he had taught the parrot to talk. Little Ned was invited out to breakfast and Mother was quite thrilled at this almost adult social experience for her young son. "It's a waffle breakfast," she said. But there is a bit of scotch in young Ned. "Do you suppose they'll have

Why you are asked to Conserve Electricity

Since there is no shortage of electricity, you may wonder why you are asked to conserve it.

The answer is that there is a need to conserve fuel, railroad facilities, manpower and certain materials used to supply electricity. Conservation of electricity means a saving of these critical resources.

Read the story below and you'll understand where shortages exist and how you can help ease them to promote the war effort and speed the victory we are all striving for.

Coal—is a vital necessity for producing the arms and equipment our men need on the fighting fronts throughout the world. Coal is also a first necessity in producing electricity. By conserving electricity you conserve coal for war production.

Transportation—The nation's transportation system is heavily burdened in moving war supplies and troops. These same transportation facilities must also bring coal to our power plants. By conserving electricity you help ease the strain on transportation.

Manpower—The need for men in the armed forces has created a shortage of manpower. Conservation of electricity in commercial and industrial establishments and in the home, helps to conserve manpower for the producing and transporting of coal.

Critical materials—Every electric light bulb uses tungsten for a filament. Tungsten is also needed in great quantities for radio tubes, Radar and other equipment. By using fewer electric bulbs and using them conservatively, you help our men get more of the weapons they need.

Here's where you can help conserve electricity

Indoor and outdoor advertising, promotional and display sign lighting

Decorative and ornamental lighting, including decorative flood lighting

Show window lighting which does not provide essential interior illumination

Marquee and building entrance lighting (other than advertising signs)

Lighting of outdoor business establishments

General interior illumination and show case lighting

Lighting in the home and use of electric appliances

Ask at any of our offices for a free booklet giving the detailed suggestions of the War Production Board as to how the above uses of electricity may be reduced.

Electricity has gone to war—don't waste it!

Henry James Schuetz S 1/C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Schuetz of Prairie View, was home on a 15-day furlough and left Nov. 11 for Bremerton, Washington, where he is stationed.

Pvt. Edwin Bruns of Palatine came home last week on ten day furlough from Washington. It's Ed's first time home in nine months.

Arlington

Mrs. Neal Graham is enjoying a two weeks holiday at Phoenix, Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heiss attended the Don Cossack Chorus, concert on Sunday afternoon, held in Chicago.

Mrs. Donald Stockdale spent the week-end with her sister in Lafayette, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conklin are moving soon into the home of Lucille Paddock on North Dunton st.

Mrs. Milo J. Vondracek and Karen Lee and Jack left Saturday for a two week visit at the home of her parents in Perry, Iowa. Karen Lee's first birthday fell on Monday of this week, which was also the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of her grandparents, and called for a joint celebration. Rev. Vondracek hopes to join them for Thanksgiving.

The Pack meeting last Friday had over 100 in attendance and was very interesting.

We know now that we have a great deal of local talent and every act was very good. Edward Hunsinger led off with three numbers on the accordion.

The play put on by Mr. Meyers den was full of action and it's rumored that the school board are going to bar the baby (Harry Griffith) from the school. The whole cast was very good.

Mr. Cooper's den had an orchestra that was very good on their second selection. Who was the Tascanini?

Den 5 has started to hold their meetings at the Presbyterian church and find they need a den chest.

They are making this chest and also getting the decorations made. Ralph Allen is making a new Den pennant in Cub colors, while Ernest Heide is hanging a poster of the Cub Promise. Johnny Freeman is making the Pledge of Allegiance and Andy Cochran is helping his dad, who is Den dad; make the chest.

We felt quite honored at our last Pack meeting to have the Chief Scout Executive of the Northwest Council, Mr. Huntington with us.

The Cub chairman and Cubmaster of Palatine were with us and we enjoyed having them give us a short talk even if Palatine was referred to as a suburb of Arlington Heights. Exchanging ideas with neighbors always helps us from becoming bored with our own routine.

Red Cross group seeks iron bed

The Red Cross Home Nursing class in Arlington has now reached its required enrollment, although anyone still interested may join by calling Mrs. Burkhardt, tel. 671. The class will get under way, as soon as a single iron bedstead can be secured for class demonstration purposes. No doubt many such articles are reposing in attic in the village, and if some patriotic citizen will loan one to the instructor it will be greatly appreciated. Mrs. Burkhardt will also be very happy to take phone calls about the bed. A mattress and spring will also be needed, but the bed is the most needed article at the present moment.

Turkey may not grace as many Thanksgiving tables as of yore, due to the shortage of that holiday bird, but the spirit of the day still lies deep in the heart of every American. Family reunions, altho the ranks are not complete, are still the order of the day and many in the village will join groups here and abroad, or will entertain such groups in their own homes. Local girl is model

Carol Forrest is in need of a clipping service it seems. She is the small Arlington Heights Miss who at the age of four, has made quite a reputation as a commercial model. Her latest assignment was to model Playskool toys, and the advertisement appeared in the November issue of the Children's Activities Magazine on page 37. Carol is hoping that some one in the village may see this notice and will clip and mail her the advertisement from their copies, as several dotting relatives are anxious to keep their scrap books on Carol up to date. Her address is 117 S. Walnut.

Well known book reviewer to talk at book fair

Miss Ida B. Swail, publishers representative, has completed all arrangements for the Book Fair to be sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association on the evening of December 3, according to the ways and means chairman, Mrs. N. K. Barr.

Miss Swail has arranged to have Catherine E. Adamson, head of the children's department of Hill Branch library in Chicago, as the book reviewer for the evening, stating that Arlington Heights book lovers had shown such appreciation last year, that they deserved the best reviewer obtainable. Miss Adamson is well known for her Saturday story hour for children, and ranks high as a reviewer of children's books.

Miss Olive Flaherty will review books for the school children on the day of the sale at 1:30 in the afternoon and again parents can expect their children to come home with a staggering number of books on their Christmas list.

Tickets, selling at 35c each, for the fair, will be given to the school children on Wednesday. The school board is assisting in the ticket distribution, and will have charge of the refreshments which will be served that evening.

Other members of the ways and means committee who have had charge of arrangements are Mesdames Austin McCarty and Mrs. Edward Fritz.

ER of PEO guest night

ER chapter of PEO held their annual guest night on Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Irving Rinker.

Mrs. Layman Hay of Chicago, presented the program for the evening on the "Colonial Maid" This was the third in a series of programs on the early history of America, the two preceding having dealt with the history of the village and of Illinois. The following programs for the year will carry the history of America from the days of the Colonial maid up to present day events.

Mrs. Hay presented her program in costume.

Following the program, a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed. Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames John Kumber, Robert Blackburn, Warren Fellingham and Irving Rinker.

Jerald Anderson is christened

Jerald Harvey Anderson, four months old son of Lieut. and Mrs. J. Harvey Anderson, was christened at the Methodist church on Sunday morning. Rev. Milo J. Vondracek performed the ceremony.

The family group consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Anderson, Sr. of Chicago, and the great grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, also of Chicago, Edward Anderson of Chicago, and John Rahn and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rahn of the village, all enjoyed dinner at the Georgian hotel in Evanston, following the church service, and later were the guests of the Anderson family in Chicago.

Lieut. Anderson is enjoying a two weeks furlough, and will return to his station at Camp Forrest, Tenn., on Nov. 29. He is in the tank destroyers unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Geduldig celebrated this week, the completion of a half a century of wedded life, and two happy events honored the golden wedding occasion.

The family and intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Geduldig were guests at a buffet supper on Sunday evening in the home of Mrs. Fred Schmitt, and on Tuesday afternoon an open house and tea was given in the Schmitt home for their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. David Swan of Freeport, Ill., who served as attendants in the original wedding party were present for the anniversary supper, as were many others of the original wedding guests. Mrs. Fred Schmitt served as bridemaid in the original wedding party also. Rev. Filib and pastor of the Gethsemane Evangelical Lutheran church of Chicago, a friend of the Geduldigs, and a close friend of Rev. Rudolph Jahn, the minister who married them fifty years ago, was present for the anniversary and had the guests of honor reaffirm their nuptial vows.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Erhart Geduldig of Highland Park, and Dr. and Mrs. Chester Geduldig of Chicago, were present for their parents' celebration, as were the grandchildren, Naval Cadet Robert Erhart Geduldig, who is stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, and Ruth and Gloria Geduldig of Chicago. Ruth and Gloria are both accomplished swimmers, having won top ranking honors in that sport at the Tam O' Shanter country club. When the Geduldigs celebrated their twenty fifth wedding anniversary, neither son was able to be present, as they were serving in the last world war, and it was most gratifying to feel that all could be present at the golden anniversary.

The Schmitt home was beautifully decorated for the double celebration with baskets of flowers, carrying out a color scheme of yellow, and at the tea on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Chester Geduldig, Mrs. Harry Erhart Geduldig and Miss Greta Schrader presided at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Geduldig were married in Hyde Park, Chicago, on Nov. 23, 1893 in a home ceremony, and lived there for many years, coming to Arlington Heights

WE HAVE PLENTY TO BE THANKFUL FOR!

Thanksgiving, 1943, is different from the Thanksgiving of every year past . . . from the first celebration when the early settlers gave thanks for their harvests and blessings . . . from the celebrations during the depression years when the holiday theme was a hope for food and jobs for all. Today we give thanks that we are strong . . . that we live in a democracy . . . that we can think as we please. We are thankful that we can work and sacrifice in the knowledge that we are on the side of mercy and justice. We have plenty to be thankful for.

about ten years ago. Mr. Geduldig is in the decorating business and during the 1893 Columbian Exposition, was superintendent of the Phillipson Decorating Co., which did much of the exterior decorating of the Exposition buildings. He supervised the work of 365 men, who not only put on the exterior finish of the exposition buildings, but did the ornate carving, which made them so outstanding. He had charge of the only building done in color, the Transportation building, and also had complete charge of the exterior work on the Women's building.

He was well liked by all his employees, and upon completion of his job at the Exposition, the workmen presented him with a gold medal and a gold headed cane, as their expression of appreciation of his kindness and cooperation. Mr. Geduldig is still in the decorating business, but now does interior work. Mrs. Geduldig has been active in the Woman's club of the village, and many friends called at the open house to wish them many more years of wedded happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Geduldig are carrying forth a family tradition in the celebration of golden wedding anniversaries, as there have been three such celebrations on both sides of the family.

Men's night

Arlington Heights Woman's club will entertain their men at their next meeting, December 1. Meeting opens at 8 p. m. Rev. John Heuss headlines the program for the evening. Mrs. Frank Carr will sing a group of songs to complete the program.

MAC SAYS:

BY GERALD A. McELROY

Lt. John O'Brien reported missing in New Guinea. That was a real shock. Jack was one of my Palatine athletes that I like to remember. He was not the best player I've had in basketball ability but Palatine never had a boy on a team with more never give up spirit and team leadership. If Jack is down in the jungles of New Guinea, take my word for it, he will get out if any one can. He is that type of man.

We like to recall the season that Jack was a senior. Palatine had a good season in the conference with third place among the 12 members of the old Northwest League, finishing that low only because of a pair of defeats at the hands of Ela. Then after that second Ela defeat which was an overtime affair the team lost its top scorer and one of the best guards by ineptibility for the rest of the season. The picture looked mighty dark. Bud Nangle moved up to center from guard. Bob Hollinger, freshman on the conference champion lights, took over on the varsity at guard along with Chuck Buenow, a junior and Bill Thompson, senior. Mervin Fink, a soph, was at forward along with spark plug O'Brien and freshman Chuck Snyder. This makeshift lineup led the team morale and determination of any I have had at Palatine. They went out and won 10 straight before losing to New Trier 33-24 in the regional semi-finals.

Palatine had never won a tournament of any kind. The Pirates and their winning streak had to enter the district with teams such as Hebron, only once defeated; Ela undefeated for the whole season; and a strong Niles Twp. team. The Pirates met Ela in the semi-finals. Going into the last quarter Ela was way out in front and in fact had an eight point lead with five minutes to go. O'Brien called time out. The boys got in a huddle and told the coach they were going to win. The score was 23-20. Several chances to win it before the regular playing time expired. In the second overtime O'Brien, playing center in the front line of the Palatine zone defense, stole the ball and dribbled the length of the court to score with his left hand specialty. The game was over as it was sudden death in those days back in 1938 and Palatine won 33-30. The next night in the dressing room O'Brien said just before we went out for the final with Niles, "fellows, I've never played on a championship team. We missed the lightweight championship by one game when I was a sophomore and the heavyweight because of Ela this year. Here is our chance to do something Palatine has not done before, win it." Bud Nangle agreed and the younger boys went out with the confidence of veterans behind that pair of seniors and led a good Niles team all the way to win 27-21. The next week they triumphed Libertyville 29-21 at the Waukegan regional and led New Trier the first half in the semi-finals only to lose because fatigue caught up with them. But in losing, O'Brien was still playing circles around the New Trier guards and going just as hard with the game lost as though he had a chance to win.

Since then I have had five teams in a row that have been better basketball teams from the standpoint of skill, but never a one that had the morale, team spirit, and leadership that the second semester team of 1938 had. That team led by "Johnnie" O'Brien, supplied me with my greatest thrill in sports and started Palatine basketball on a streak of winning teams which we hope will still be unbroken this season six years later.

Arlington eleven to feast Nov. 29

The first annual football banquet of the Dad's Club for the Arlington high school football team will be held in the Lutheran school at 6:30 p. m. Monday night, Nov. 29.

The affair is under the direction of the club's athletic committee, with Pat McDonald, Harry Robinson and Graydon Howlett handling the arrangements.

A limited number of 150 tickets have been printed at $1.00 each, and are now on sale at Lohr's Pharmacy, Mori Green's and the Jewel Oil Company in Arlington Heights, and at Van Driel's Drug Store in Mt. Prospect.

Honor 30 squad members

It is planned to have about thirty members of the varsity football squad as invited guests, along with Principal A. M. Conger, Coach Armond Seidler, and John L. Grose, assistant principal and former varsity coach who this year worked with the J-V squad.

A prominent speaker will headline the program.

Certificates of award will be given by Coach Seidler to those qualifying during the past season for football letters, and the Dad's club will have a special certificate for the boys who did not have enough playing time to qualify for the coveted "A."

A-club ceremony planned

The "A" club is now under extensive re-organization, and it is planned to present at the football banquet a brief ceremony in which the members of the letterman's organization take their pledge to carry forward, and make even greater, the tradition of Arlington high school athletics. Old members of the club, and those coming up for membership, will take part in the ceremony.

The Dad's club hopes annually to present this post-season tribute to the boys on the football squad, and urges support in its efforts to make the inaugural banquet the swart which the athletes deserve.

Come out and honor the 1943 Arlington Heights high school football boys!

Bisons lose thriller to Leyden team, 37-35

The Bisons opened their season Saturday night with a couple of thrillers in which they split the twin bill with neighboring Leyden of Franklin Park. Bensenville took the preliminary 16-15, but was edged out 37-35 in the varsity game.

The Bison lights led by Helms and Webb ran up a 10-5 lead in the opening quarter and though they scored but two points in the next two quarters, managed to lead all the way until the final minute of play. Then Leyden knotted the score at 15 all but a free throw by Bower gave Bensenville the victory. Davis topped Leyden's scoring with seven points.

The Bison varsity played fine ball but had a rather poor shot record. A slow start in which Leyden ran up a 14-5 first quarter lead was fatal to the Bensenville chances. The Bisons scored 14 points to Leyden's seven in the second quarter and from there on it was nip and tuck all the way. Bensenville was in front 30-29 at the start of the last quarter.

T. Lofgren at guard was outstanding for Leyden. Kernats played a fine all round game at guard for the Bisons while Stan Scholman, Scholman, and Schoppe from last year's lightweights did most of the scoring in their debut as varsity team members.

Arlington falls to Maine 35-10

by JOE SMART

Arlington lost their 1943 basketball opener to Maine 35-10 last Saturday night, before a large crowd of over 700 spectators. The Cards were obviously not ready for the game as their offense failed to function properly. They made one basket every quarter plus Dohnke's gift goal in the third quarter when he tipped the ball into the Cards' hoop, the two points going to Kohler.

Maine at away on frequent fast breaks for close-in shots while the Cards popped away on long one handers and set shots, hitting only five baskets in thirty-four shots.

After a close first quarter Maine built up a 15-4 lead at the half.

and continually piled up more points until the final score of 35-10 was attained.
C. Page notched the first basket after four minutes of the first quarter, but Maine went ahead 4-2 at the quarter on Russell's two baskets, and were never headed again. Maine led 15-4 at the half as Knezevich donated four points, Pavlich three, and Dohnke and Vogttritter two apiece, while Hamberg tallied Arlington's two points.

The blue and white steadily pushed ahead to a 28-8 lead at the third quarter and went on to establish the final score of 35-10. C. Page added two baskets in the last half plus Kohler's gift, summing up the Card's 10 points. However, the Cards missed all fourteen of their free-throws while Maine made nine out of seventeen.

Tornadoes lose

In the junior varsity tiff, the Tornadoes rallied to a 12-13 score at the half after losing 6-2 at the quarter. However, during the third quarter, Maine notched nine points to the Tornadoes one and built up a good enough lead to win by 27-20 score. Ehard and Dahlstrom led the Tornadoes with seven points each. Tomich tallied eight for Maine.

Knezevich led Maine's varsity with ten points while C. Page was making six of the Cards ten points.

Broncs rally to beat Waukegan

Barrington rallied in the last quarter to win both games from Waukegan Friday night. The Bronchos trailed 12-10 at half time in the varsity game but broke a third period tie at 21 to win 28-23. The lights trailed 12-11 at the half but pulled away to a 27-19 victory.

Gaulke, Barrington's only returning regular, topped the scorers with 13 points. Peterson and Hook scored eight apiece for Waukegan.

"It's the first, AND LAST, licking the Arlington varsity basketball team is going to take this season. We may get beat — but nobody's going to rub it in on us again like Maine did!"

Thus spoke Coach Armond Seidler to a dispirited group of boys in the Arlington athletic quarters last Saturday.

Maine had just delivered a 35-10 humiliation in the season's opener — this after the J-V's had made a satisfactory showing in a seven-point defeat by the West Suburban League school. "Humiliation" is the proper word, too. In the lockerroom afterwards, one member of the team tore tape from his ankle and muttered through clenched teeth:

"I'm not going to wear my letter-sweater again until we wipe out the memory of that one!"

There weren't many Arlington fans who actually expected a Card victory in this first game of the season. But neither did they expect a 25-point defeat. Seidler, getting his first look at an Arlington quintet under game-conditions, naturally was disappointed, but rebounded quickly at a pep-up meeting with the squad after it was all over.

Just as one swallow doesn't make a summer, one game doesn't make a basketball season.

And that's something for which the Arlington varsity five can be thankful! As somebody once echoed — YOU CAN SAY THAT AGAIN! Maine was only the beginning... only the beginning!

CARD OF THE WEEK—Is it possible to find an Arlington standout amidst the wreckage of that varsity defeat?

We think so... and he answers to the name of CHUCK PAGE.

The box score will show that the never-smiling Charles made three baskets, and when you consider that the Cards hit only four field goals in 22 minutes (a Maine player graciously scored the other one for them), you get the idea that he was pretty much a one-man offense so far as Arlington was concerned. He hit those three baskets on a total of nine shots, so his "batting average" was .333—pretty good in any league.

But there were other angles of his play which may have escaped the casual observer. In a game in which the Cards were being badly outplayed under the backboards, he picked off loose balls from each board on frequent occasions, and it was his rebounding work as much as his basket shooting that rates him as the week's athletic hero.

Then, too, his passing and ball handling were uniformly good—and his defensive reactions fast.

You might sum it up by saying that Mrs. Page's boy, Chuck, made very few false moves against Maine... and THE SPOTLIGHT is of the opinion that FIVE periods of his play as he turned in would have whipped the West Suburban representatives.

Step up and salute your teammates, CHUCK PAGE, as the basketball season's first CARD OF THE WEEK!

You've heard the phrase: "Everything to lose and nothing to gain." Well it most certainly applies to athletic officials... the men who call the fouls and rule infractions on the playing field.

A team has "Everything to Lose" when players insist on ranting and raving at official decisions. They can't gain anything because a referee just doesn't change his mind. What he calls sticks—and only the extremely dumb players insist on making something personal out of it.

What can they hope to gain? It's definitely not a mark of team spirit to put on a public demonstration against an official. You're apt to get thrown out of the game. Or very liable to a technical foul, as Arlington got against Maine. It is, rather, a flagrant breach of team unity, because the smart team goes along with the official, accepting his decisions... maybe not cheerfully, but certainly SILENTLY. And the referee, being human, comes to respect this kind of a team... a team that accepts decisions for what they are—UNCHANGEABLE.

Everyone knows that referees make mistakes. REFEREES KNOW THAT THEMSELVES!

Pirates nose out Ela, 35-33, 20-17

Record opening crowd views see-saw battle

A record crowd flocked out Saturday night to get the first glimpse of the Palatine and Ela teams who are expected to be strong Northwest Conference contenders this season. The fans of both teams have reason for optimism. Palatine took both games, but by the narrowest of margins. The varsity beat Ela 35-33 in a hair-raising finish. The lights came from behind to win 20-17. The biggest crowd in years to attend an opening non-conference game saw the double bill.

Palatine's accuracy from the free throw line decided the varsity game and the Pirates also were hitting a better percentage from the field though Ela's superior height gave them 20 more scoring opportunities. The Pirates made nine free throws in 15 tries while Ela had only three good ones out of 14.

Ela was in front during most of the first half, but baskets by Douglas, first before the intermission gave Palatine a 14-11 margin. Early in the third quarter Ela forged ahead to a six point lead, but Vogt and Herr each scored twice to even the count at 23 all at the quarter. The lead saw-sawed back and forth during the last eight minutes. Ela passed up a chance to win the game by missing six straight free throws with the score 28-27 for Palatine. However Busa hit for Ela to gain a 29-28 lead. Then Vogt sank a free throw for a 29-29 deadlock with four minutes to play. Douglas then hit a side shot and Vogt sank two in quick succession to make the score 35-29 for the Pirates. Jim Ladd who scored seven baskets for Ela hit two in the final minute to give Palatine fans a real scare.

Meivin Vogt with 16 points topped the scorers due to a hot shooting streak near the end of the game. Vogt missed his first 15 attempts from the field and then hit the hoop on six of his last seven tries and made all four free

Ela rates first in NW league prospects

by G. A. McELROY

A close race all the way with more close games than any year since the conference reorganized. That seems to be the forecast on the eve of the opening of the 1943-44 Northwest Conference basketball season. "Who will win the championship? That is a question that only the season can answer. Palatine should be near the top if the Pirates fall in their attempt to annex a fifth straight championship. Ela gives every indication of being the team to beat and rates as the most likely team to win the championship.

Not only does Ela have the tallest and most experienced team in the league, but in addition they meet Palatine, Barrington, and Bensenville just once in league games while these three must play each other twice. As the three south end teams appear to be strong, Ela's most serious rivals the schedule does give Wesner's Lake Zurich leads an edge.

Ela is the team to beat

Pre-season indications might point to Ela, first; Palatine and Bensenville, second; Barrington and Antioch, fourth. Little is known of Grant's strength. The Bull Dogs had a fair season last year, but played only Antioch of the conference and was drubbed twice by the Sequoias. We believe that Grant still has a very fine high scoring center Garretsen. If this is true Grant will be a tough team. Antioch has a veteran six foot four center in Wilhelm who will make his team formidable along with a fine crop of lightweights moving up to the varsity. Waukegan is much stronger than expected and gave Palatine and Barrington close battles in pre-season games. Northbrook has Dahlberg and Williams from last year's team, but they played a very limited losing schedule starting in January last year. Bensenville might be the champ. The Bisons have a fine pair of veterans in Kernats and Benham at guards. Plenty of speed in that pair as football fans well know. Standard, Scholman, and Schoppe from last year's strong lightweights give the Bisons scoring punch as shown in their 37-35 loss to Leyden Saturday night.

Bronchos Tuesday
The Bisons opening conference game with Barrington has been moved up from Wednesday to Tuesday (tonight). This should be one of Bensenville's best home games and they have an excellent chance to start off with a victory. Barrington, from all reports, appears to have the best lightweight team in the league.
On Wednesday Palatine travels to Northbrook. Ela plays at Waukegan and Grant engages Antioch. Ela and Palatine would appear to be stronger than their opponents especially if Clarence Vogt is recovered from the injury which kept him out of the Palatine lineup against Ela. The Grant-Antioch game should be a real close one. Our guess would be Antioch. After Wednesday the next conference games will not be played until December 3.

As one coach stated this past week, "The team that trains the best may likely be the next Northwest champ. The teams are close enough this year in ability so that training may decide who wins out." That just about sums up the situation.

LIFE WITH MOTHER

Dear Mary:
I'm being a "Goldbrick" tonight because the "Chief" is on the "deck" above seeing that the boys "hit the sack" and "I'm standing by for the man" while I write "scuttlebutt" to you. . . . this is a sample of how "salty" we are here at Shadyrest. . . . in case you're not so "salty," I'll translate this for you. . . .

"Goldbrick" . . . a loafer, generally clever enough to "get by" with it. . . . "Chief" . . . chief petty officer; also a flattering reference to any petty officer below the rank of chief. . . . "Deck" . . . anywhere a sailor walks, except overboard. . . . "Hit the sack" . . . go to bed. . . . "I'm standing by for the man" . . . expression used when waiting orders from the commanding officer. . . . also used by "goldbricks" to avoid being selected by some petty officer for a job they detest. . . . "Scuttlebutt" . . . gossip concerning ship's company. . . . "Salty" . . . experienced. . . . learned in seamanship. . . .

Your description of the Grieg program made me wish I could have heard it. . . . you, obviously, walked slowly away from something beautiful and something which you had enjoyed very much into a scene of sadness. . . . when life is so comparatively short and could be filled with beautiful creative things like music, art, and, ah yes, babies! it does make war seem more horrible and destructive. . . . don't you think so? . . . we are fighting for the Four Freedoms. . . . I hope we're also fighting for the right of each man "to the pursuit of happiness" . . . but since "the pursuit of happiness" means something different to each of us, it is going to take a great deal of education and restraint before we can pursue it without preventing someone else from enjoying it. . . .

I mean by this. . . . well, take the Germans. . . . I believe for years they've been happy being soldiers. . . . I believe they LIKE wearing uniforms, marching the goose step and taking orders. . . . the rest of us could laugh that off as long as they didn't hurt anyone but this last bit of childishness of deciding they were a superior race and so should take over Europe and dictate to the "inferior" races as to how they should conduct themselves is just too much for the world to stomach. . . . it might make the Germans very happy to be the "Masters" of Europe, but I don't believe that Poland or Greece are a bit happy about it. . . . do you? . . . but there, this sounds a bit serious for me, doesn't it? . . . take Hitler. . . . I don't care what they do to him after the war if they'll just cut off that terrible lock of greasy hair that always hangs down over his forehead into his eyebrow. . . . it may make him happy to wear it that way but it makes me very unhappy! . . .

We were all very sorry to hear about Bob's injury. . . . if he's well on the way to recovery by now, you can remind him that I always did tell him he'd get hurt playing that silly game! . . . Davy is already playing it! . . . and in FIRST GRADE! . . . did you ever hear the like? . . . I found out about it when he came home with a hole through the knee of his best snow suit and a nick out of his left cheek. . . . it seems he had "run thirty yards" and ended up against someone in third grade's heel! . . .

I've forbidden any more football. . . . Heaven help me! . . . I've got a husband who played football all through high school and college and all that happened to him was a broken toe that wasn't set correctly. . . . well, that great big hero can't dance more than two dances with me without going into a corner to rest his foot. . . . and I think he'd take off his shoe if I'd let him! . . . let Davy be a sissy now but keep all his bones in place, say I. . . . his wife will appreciate it later. . . . Estelle was very interested in what you told us about S'Anuser. . . . we've both enjoyed her poetry. . . . which reminds me! . . . our old friend "Colonel Bill" made the news again last week. . . . every day The Sun salutes some outstanding man or woman in Chicago. . . . some one of "achievements or good deeds" . . . the article is too short to give a real picture of William G. Edens' career, but you know all about that. . . . the interesting bit to us was that on the twenty seventh of November, he will be eighty years old. . . . the last time we saw him, he came up the front steps and shouted thru the screen door at me, "I've come to see that last baby, the one you've called Jewell. Hellova name for a boy, even if it was your father's" . . . no one would have thought that voice came from a man nearing eighty! . . . but Colonel Bill is young of heart. . . . he always will be. . . . he is a Great Man to me, not because he's led an interesting life and done many worthwhile things, but because he's above all a Great Friend. . . .

A last little bit of "Scuttlebutt" and I'll close my letter. . . . Davy and Louis won the first prize for their costumes at the school Halloween party. . . . Davy and I more excited about this than either of them. . . . Estelle fell down three steps last week and hurt her knees. . . . had to take things easy for several days. . . . this much harder on her than the fall. . . . J. D. has his first tooth. . . . very blase and cross about it. . . . Charlie now wears colored dresses and her hair can be braided into two pigtales if one of us has two hours with nothing else to do in them. . . . Davy is to be in a music recital the nineteenth of December. . . . has a much prettier piece to play this year and likes it so much that he already has it memorized.

India

Arriving in India is Cpl. Edmund W. Bornaack of Itasca.
"Finally arrived safely and feeling fine. The trip was awful long and got rather monotonous, but now that I'm here, it seems well worth it."
"The first mail I got in India was 53 letters at one time, among them were a lot of birthday cards."
"The weather is very hot, but we have cool barracks and we like it very much. Meals are the best, too, so we have no kick coming."
His address is Cpl. Edmund W. Bornaack, ASN 36706832, APO 12311-E c/o PM, New York City, N. Y.

Writing from India this week is Jesse Weber, formerly of Arlington Heights, and nephew of William Weber of Arlington.
"Weather here is much cooler than when I arrived. However, it still becomes quite hot and humid in the afternoon. At night we sleep under at least one blanket and are very comfortable."
"Another session and I will have 100 hours of combat time. There are some remarkable features about that can't be told here for obvious reasons, but are nonetheless remarkable because of supporting factors."
"We are living quite comfortably here leaving nothing to be desired. But, there are many little things that are made only in the good old USA."
His address is Lt. J. C. Weber 6-79209, APO 631, c/o PM, New York, N. Y.

Massachusetts

Writing a brief note from Massachusetts is William Schoepke of Arlington Heights.
"Have moved again and am now just outside of Boston. That town is just like Chicago, only more so."
"We are confined to the building unless duty or pass. We have our own mess, PX, recreation hall. The Rec. hall includes pool tables, table tennis, radio machines, magazines and coke. I'll have to start playing pool again. Haven't played since I was about 12."
"I expect to move again in the near future."

Colorado

Again changing his address at Colorado Springs, Colorado, is Eddie Withaeger. His new address is Sgt. Edwin Withaeger 543 Bomb Sq 383 Bomb Grp (H), Peterson field, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Florida

Richard W. Maloney, 19, son of Mrs. Irma E. Maloney of 18 NW Highway, Arlington Heights, was recently appointed a Naval Aviation Cadet and was transferred to the Naval Air Training Center, Pensacola, Fla., for intermediate flight training.

Upon completion of the intensive course at the "Annapolis of the Air" Cadet Maloney will receive his Navy "Wings of Gold" with the designation of Naval Aviator, and will be commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve or a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Daniel H. Erdevig of Palatine who has been attending Newberry College, Newberry, S. C. for the past four months, in V-12 unit, has been promoted to Seaman 2nd class, and will attend school for the next six months at the Naval Air Training Station, Pensacola, Florida. "The Annapolis of the Air," where he will receive practical training with planes, and then go on to Pre-Flight school at some outlying field.

Ohio

Cadet Leroy O. Gieseke, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gieseke, 39 E. Chicago st., Roselle, was one of 41 cadets of the ASTP at Muskingum college, New Concord, O., who made honor roll grades during the first 12 week term there.

In order to be placed upon the honor roll at Muskingum, both Army and civilian students must earn an A- average.
ASTP cadets have 39 hours of class work and five hours of military training for a period of 28 weeks. The Muskingum cadets began their second 12 week period of instruction Nov. 8.

"HITLER'S MADMAN"

Georgia

Writing from Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, is WAC Ruth Karstens of Arlington Heights.
"Just returned from chorus rehearsal which was held at the Officer's club this evening. We are preparing on entertaining the 48 governors who are supposed to visit the Post this Wednesday in observance of All-States day, as well as Maj. Gen. Bryden, and Colonel Hobby. Our chorus is going to sing "Night and Day," "I Pledge Allegiance to the Flag," and "The WAC is a Soldier Too," so you see we really have been kept busy. There are so many new WACs down here at the post that the place is just jammed with recruits."

"This morning I arose at 5:30 and we all had breakfast at 6:05, imagine feasting at that time in the morning. Breakfast consisted of grapefruit, oranges, pancakes, milk and eggs. Quite tasty. I have given up the idea of going on a diet, because I just can't stick to it. I sometimes eat one meal a day, and then I dash up to the Non-Com Club and have a couple of hamburgers, so my diet doesn't do me a particle of good."
"Saw a wonderful movie the other night here on the Post. The name of it was "Lassie Come Home" taken from Eric Knight's book. It so happens that his daughter is here on the Post, so most of the kids went to see the show just for curiosity purposes."
Her address is T/4 Ruth Karstens A-607923, Hq Det WAC Sect A-1, 3rd WAC Tng Ctr, Ft Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Cpl. Maurice E. Sheahan, Jr., son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. M. E. Sheahan, of 711 Fairview st., Arlington Heights, successfully made his fifth and qualifying jump recently. This tactical night jump completed his Parachute Jump Training at Fort Benning, Ga., which lasted the standard four weeks and which included jumping from the towers 250 ft. high and learning completely the technique of safe parachute jumping and landing. He has earned the right to wear the coveted Wings and Boots of the U. S. Army's most modern soldier, The Paratrooper.

The Parachute School at Fort Benning is the school at which all Army paratroopers in Tunisia, Sicily, New Guinea and all over the world, received their initial jump training. In the last six months, as the result of constant study and refinement in instruction, casualties in training have been reduced over one third. At the present time a man jumping from a plane at the Parachute School has less than 1% chance of being injured.

Australia

Writing from Australia is Ronald Wessel of Palatine.
"Gee, it's good to be on land again. Especially when it's so pretty everywhere. You see, it is spring here now. Looks as if I got out of the states just in time. "All of the lawns are well-kept here with many pretty flowers. The pansies, daisies, and such are all in bloom now. To top it off, the camp is in a race track, and the Australians are noted for their beautiful race tracks."

"The grass in the infield is kept up by the army and looks swell. The outer rail is lined with rose bushes, while the inner rail has a small hedge. The theater is built just inside the rail and that is where I am."
"Sort of hard to get used to Australian money. All American currency has to be changed. Also, the "trams" travel on the left side of the streets. Most of the birds you see here are strange to me."

Indiana

Thomas John Randal Coleman, 1516 Mayfair rd., Arlington Heights, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coleman, has enlisted in the V-12 program of the navy and is now training at the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Indiana.
The V-12 program is an officer candidate program which is sponsored by the Navy Department so that a man can complete his college education and continue his studies to become a Naval Officer.
His subject will include many specialized courses that will fit him for duty with the Navy Reserve.
At the completion of the prescribed course he will continue on to another school for indoctrination and there will be graduated as an ensign in the Naval Reserve.

New Caledonia

Joseph Jean Huart, Jr., S 2/C of Bensenville, on duty somewhere in the Southwest Pacific, writes home and says Navy life is tops. At present he is going to school, learning all about auto and Marine engines. He is Fireman 3/C. He has learned to drive a car there and has been driving the jeeps and trucks around his PT base.
Not so very long ago his mother and his girl friend each received a grass skirt and several necklaces Joe had sent them from New Caledonia. They were quite interesting. The necklaces are strung with native shells, seeds and berries on native grass. The grass skirts have a similar bead work about the waist line.

Joe also sent home a large sheet of what appears to be bamboo paper. Drawn on this with the juices of native bark and berries is a large U. S. Shield.
Joe was given a scroll when he crossed the equator. When the men cross the equator for the first time they are initiated into the Solemn Mysteries of the Ancient Order of the Deep. There usually is quite a ceremony associated with this initiation. Seamen who have been initiated on previous trips take their turn initiating the younger men. This is quite an event. Of course, wartime conditions may change things, but during peace time members of the crew are dressed as Father Neptune, Davy Jones, etc.

Joe and another buddy share a little hut on one of the South Sea Isles. They have just had their hut wired for electricity. This will enable them to enjoy the electric radio Joe's folks sent him for Christmas. Here's hoping it gets through.
Joe says he has been nicknamed the Admiral and says he likes it. Joe's address is Joseph Jean Huart, Jr., S 2/C, c/o Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Calif.

Kentucky

Believed to be still in New Caledonia is Joe Mayerck of Arlington Heights.
"Just received the paper today and was very glad to hear from all again. I am working 10 hours a night 7 nights a week. It looks like all I do is work. I am beginning to think I'm a 24-hour man. I will be glad when I come home again and work just 8 hours. The only time I write letters is when I come home from work and then it is 3:30 a. m., and I am so tired then I can't write."
His address is Cpl. Joe Mayerck, 1612431 APO 502 c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Aleutians

Still in the Aleutians is Paul Hoeft of Arlington Heights.
"Seems like old man winter is here. We had our first snow the other day though the rain immediately melted it. The mountains around us are still white and some morning soon we'll probably have to shovel our way out."
